

TEACHER SPOTLIGHT

MRS. SUE BOSTWICK

Mrs. Sue Bostwick has been teaching K-5 grade art at CTKCS since 2004 and our students is what she enjoys most about teaching at our school. Mrs. Bostwick is a native of Memphis, TN and came to the University of Southern Mississippi to earn her BFA in Art Education.

She has been married for 43 years to her husband, Gary, and they have one daughter and three grandchildren. She loves to spend her free time with her grandchildren doing lots of art projects! Mrs. Bostwick also loves to draw and paint when she does have a little free time for herself.

FUN STUFF ABOUT MRS. BOSTWICK

Her favorite color is turquoise.

She enjoys music from the 50's, 60's and 70's.

Her favorite food is sushi, especially from Jia – a restaurant in Biloxi. She says their sushi is the best! She also likes fresh garden tomatoes, creamed fresh corn, pinkeye peas, cornbread, homemade gumbo and chicken and dumplings.

TEACHING PHILOSOPHY

I believe every child can be creative in the right environment.
