

TEACHER SPOTLIGHT

MRS. SYBIL VIATOR

Mrs. Sybil Viator is our 6B Homeroom and Jr. High Science teacher. She has taught at CTK Catholic School since 2004 and enjoys teaching our middle school students and getting to know them over their 3 years as her students.

Mrs. Viator was born in Austell, GA and received her undergraduate degree from the University of South Alabama and did her graduate work at the University of Mobile. She is married to her husband, Jason, and has three children, ages 6, 9 and 12. Their family also has two fish names Applejack and Sallo. She is actually a convert to the Catholic faith completing RCIA in her third year of college.

She loves stories; she enjoys reading and watching TV series as well as going places with her kids like to the Exploreum, the zoo or Dauphin Island. She also loves to visit aquariums.

FUN STUFF ABOUT MRS. VIATOR

Her favorite color is red.

Her favorite movie is “Return to Me” and “Song of Bernadette”.

She enjoys Pop and Country music.

Her favorite food is shrimp, barbeque and country fried steak.

TEACHING PHILOSOPHY

I treat each child with love and respect so they will love and respect me in return.
