

TEACHER SPOTLIGHT

MS. JULIA OTTO

Ms. Julia Otto teaches kindergarten and has been teaching at CTKCS for over 15 years. Ms. Otto earned her BS in Education from Spring Hill College, and certification in Early Childhood Education. She loves to visit her son in San Francisco and her daughter's family in St. Louis where she has two grandsons.

Ms. Otto enjoys many things about teaching at CTKCS...praying with her students, and attending weekly school Mass with them, seeing how much her students grow in just one year, and celebrating the holidays with 5 year olds – so many fun art projects to do!

Ms. Otto enjoys reading, walking, DIY projects, painting, and her Adoration Hour. She loves to visit New Orleans, the beach, and her children and grandchildren.

FUN STUFF ABOUT MS. OTTO

Her favorite color is blue.

Her favorite movies are “Life Is Beautiful”, “Jaws”, and “Roman Holiday”.

She loves all music! She especially enjoys Alabama Shakes, U2, Coldplay, and Frank Sinatra.

Her favorite foods are seafood and breakfast food.

TEACHING PHILOSOPHY

“Every student can learn, just not on the same day, or the same way.” – George Evans

“For I know the Plans I have for You” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.” – Jeremiah 29:11
