

TEACHER SPOTLIGHT

SEÑORA JANE DAVIDSON

Señora Jane Davidson was born and raised in Fairhope, AL. She married her high school sweetheart, Christopher. They are blessed with two sons, Collin and Brock. The oldest attends McGill-Toolen Catholic, and their younger son will begin Kindergarten here at CTKCS next August. In her spare time, Señora Davidson enjoys being with her family, and also catching up with friends- via Skype and Periscope.

Learning about history, other cultures, languages, and exotic places is a passion of hers. For this reason, she loves to travel abroad as much as possible.

Señora Davidson has been teaching at CTKCS since 2014 . She graduated from The University of Kentucky with a BA Degree in Foreign Languages and International Economics (Go Big Blue!). She earned International Baccalaureate-Level Professional Educator Certification from California Association of IB World Schools in 2008.

“I truly adore each and every student here at Christ the King Catholic School. Being able to teach within such a Christ-centered environment is a true blessing!”

TEACHING PHILOSOPHY

There are many diverse learning styles- and I want all students to succeed. Knowing a foreign language will open many doors.
