

TEACHER SPOTLIGHT

MRS. CHRIS BARTZ

Mrs. Chris Bartz is our Jr. High Social Studies and 8B Homeroom teacher. She has taught our Jr. High students for 7 years and has loved watching them grow academically, spiritually and socially as they progress through Junior High Catholic school. It has been a wonderful experience for her.

Mrs. Bartz is originally from the small town of Aurora, MN and earned her BS in Elementary and Middle School Education from St. Cloud State University. She is married to her husband, Chad, and they have three children; their son is a freshman at Auburn University, and two daughters, one a Junior at McGill Toolen Catholic and one an 8th grade student at CTKCS. Their family also has a pet Schnauzer named Tucker.

When asked about what she enjoys doing in her free time, she says “what’s that?” She does enjoy the beach, traveling, especially to Europe, reading, cooking and shopping.

FUN STUFF ABOUT MRS. BARTZ

Her favorite movie is...well actually she likes TV more. Her favorite shows are “Say Yes to the Dress”, “Project Runway” and “Engineering an Empire with Peter Weller”.

Her favorite music is Country and Classic Rock.

Her favorite foods are a good salad loaded up and ICE CREAM!

She likes pigs!

TEACHING PHILOSOPHY

I teach students, not subjects!
