

TEACHER SPOTLIGHT

MRS. DENISE HELPER

Mrs. Denise Helper is a native of New Orleans and a graduate of LSU. She has been married to her husband, Corey, for 17 years and has three sons, ages 12, 10 and 7. She loves watching her boys play sports and going to LSU for sporting events, especially football. Mrs. Helper was a former high school basketball player and played on two championship teams. She has enjoyed coaching one of her boys' basketball teams here at CTKCS. Their family also has a miniature Black Lab named Trigger.

Mrs. Helper has been teaching our 1B students for the past 3 years, but has also taught 4th grade here at CTKCS for 7 years previously. She enjoys the wonderful families she has met here through the years. She loves watching the students grow up here. She enjoys seeing them at church, around the community and hearing how they are doing.

She loves hanging out on the boat with her family, going to the beach and watching the sunsets on the water..."reflections of the moon on the water are so amazing". She also enjoys running, boot camp and body pump class.

TEACHING PHILOSOPHY

I believe all children can and want to learn. This is made possible through a loving, caring and nurturing environment. The more engaged a student can be through, talking, reading, writing, using manipulatives in a variety of ways and different techniques, helps the learning process. Letting a child know, teaching them, that they are made in God's image and because of this they are special and loved.
