NEW BUSINESS:

Committees:

- Carpool Line: There are still openings for Monday's and Thursday's.
- Milk & Ice Cream: Needs volunteers.
- Pumpkin Festival: Needs volunteers.

Technology Request: Sherry Cook has asked for the PTO to spend $7700 on Chromebooks for the junior high students. The Chromebooks will integrate with what the students are using ie, they use google accounts. This request was approved. Maggie will get with Sherry to work out the purchase details.

Fundraising:

- Hotwheels has reached out to us about making a Friday Night Skate Night Fundraiser from 7-11pm $8 per child (split $4 to CKCS & $4 to Hotwheels) The rink will not be closed to the public. The price includes admission and skates only. It was recommended that the information be passed to Kristin with the youth group.
- Middle School Dance- The youth group will likely have another dance this year for 6-8 graders. It was well received last year.

Advent Devotionals: Alyson already made labels.

Red Ribbon Week: October 24-28, 2016 PTO will provide popsicles. Ginger will look into prices for with sticks or without. There are 470 kids. There may also be some in the freezer in the gym.

Grandparents Day: Friday, October 21, 2016 PTO needs to attend. Alyson Schott has everything planned and prepared. She will direct us that day.

Pumpkin Festival: Sunday, October 23, 2016 The PTO will also assist with selling raffle tickets and be onsite to help that day to run tokens.

Website Updates: We would like to get pictures of what the teachers bought with their gift cards and put those on E-blasts. Ann will email teachers.

Spring Meeting: It was brought up that we might offer a seminar on technology to teach parents about cyber bullying etc.
